

Title of the initiative	OPIN toolbox for digital youth participation projects
Description of the Initiative	Free text, including: OPIN is an all-in-one digital and mobile toolbox for anyone who wants to set up and run a digital youth participation project – young people themselves, youth workers, youth organizations administrations etc. .The platform offers several options for project frames, such as city planning features, idea challenges, collaborative text reviewing and many more. OPIN is safe by design and supports project managers with hands-on tips and tricks to make sure that their projects are a success. With OPIN even newcomers can run digital participation projects! Check out www.OPIN.me
Keywords of the Initiative	online platform, participation, youth, open source, decision support
Type of Output of Initiative	<input type="checkbox"/> Design of new SSH-inclusive ICTs <input type="checkbox"/> Establishment of a Community of interest
Country(ies) involved	<input type="checkbox"/> Germany, France, Belgium, Slovenia, Luxemburg, Italy, Sweden, Denmark, Malta, Georgia, Macendonia
Geographic scale of the initiative	Local (Municipality), Regional, National, International
Website	https://opin.me/en/
Name of the contact person	Kerstin
Family Name of the contact person	Franzl
E-mail	Franzl@nexusinstitut.de
Date of publication	05.02.2019
Status of the initiative	<input type="checkbox"/> Running
Users' target group(s)	<input type="checkbox"/> Policy makers <input type="checkbox"/> General public level <input type="checkbox"/> Local Administrations <input type="checkbox"/> Private Consultancy <input type="checkbox"/> Agencies
RRI dimensions involved	<input type="checkbox"/> The requests of civil society have been evaluated. (Public Engagement) <input type="checkbox"/> It has been considered the gender and background balance when forming the working teams. (Gender Equality) <input type="checkbox"/> The representatives of civil society have been provided with the knowledge and skills to actively participate in the initiative. (Science Education) <input type="checkbox"/> The outcomes of the activities have been / are being published for free access. (Open Access)
SSH disciplines involved	<input type="checkbox"/> Anthropology <input type="checkbox"/> Political science <input type="checkbox"/> Psychology

	<input type="checkbox"/> Sociology
ICT domain involved in the initiative, both for the activities and as for output.	<input type="checkbox"/> Content technologies and information management , big data, open data, languages learning and teaching technologies, creative technologies , gaming and new interactions technologies
Method used to exchange information and knowledge to include the RRI principles into the ICT research and innovation processes	<input type="checkbox"/> Cooperative workshops <input type="checkbox"/> Focus groups <input type="checkbox"/> Round tables <input type="checkbox"/> External revision of SSH experts <input type="checkbox"/> Face-to-face meetings <input type="checkbox"/> Adaption of the (digital) content
Participation and engagement of people and organizations in the implementation of the initiative	<input type="checkbox"/> They all participate into a funded project/initiative
Number of people participating	10.000
Number of organizations participating	11
Number of events held	115
Number of researchers (ICT+SSH) involved	40
Number of women involved	nA
Number of joint discussion themes	nA
Who sustained the cost / effort	<input type="checkbox"/> EU H2020
How it is / has been funded this initiative?	<input type="checkbox"/> Public funding
Notes	Free text